

Vivli-AMR Quick Start Guide for Users

Vivli Release 3.6

22 February 2024

1. Overview

Vivli is an independent, non-profit organization that has implemented an AMR (antimicrobial resistance) Surveillance Data Register for industry datasets to serve the international research community.

- Our mission is to promote, coordinate, and facilitate scientific sharing and reuse of industry surveillance data through the creation and implementation of a sustainable global data-sharing enterprise.
- The Vivli-AMR platform consists of an in-depth search engine and an independent data repository.
- Researchers may search for datasets and request data packages from the Data Contributors using the Data Request Form, download and analyze the datasets.
- Certain datasets can be requested via redirection to a partner platform.

2. Becoming a Vivli-AMR Register User

2.0 Setting up a Vivli-AMR User Account

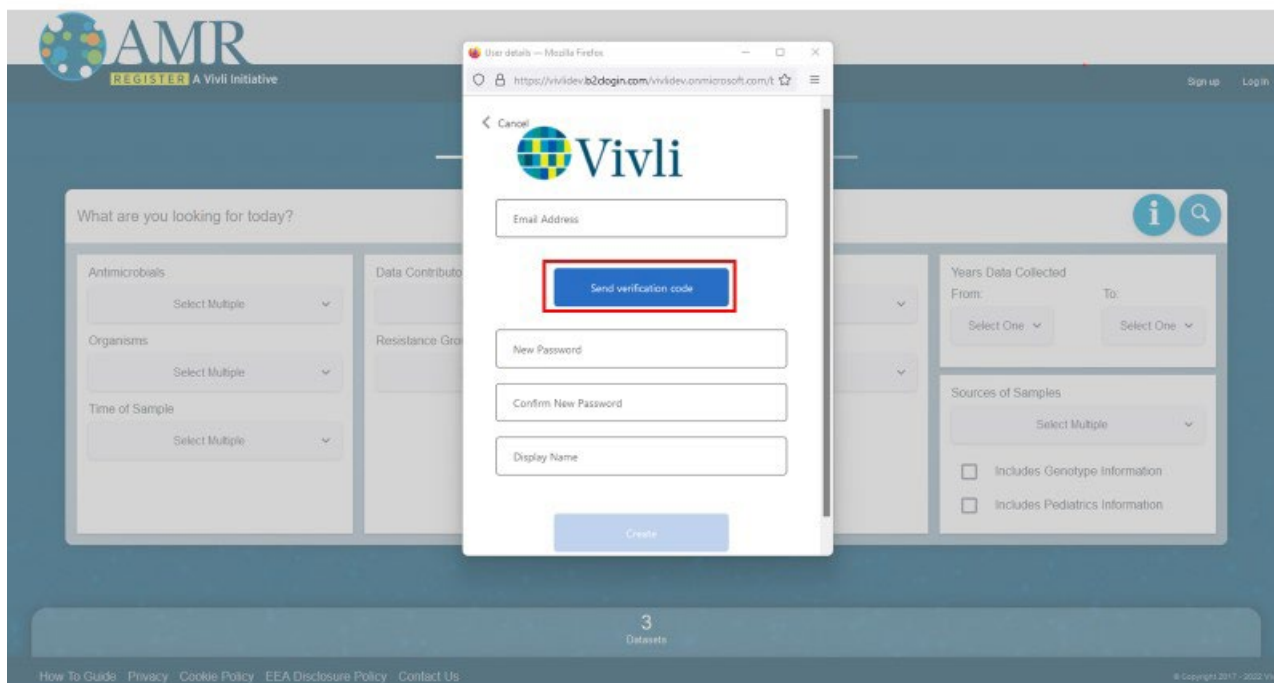

1. From a supported browser (see section 4 below for details), go to searchamr.vivli.org to access the platform.
2. Click on the Signup button in the upper-right hand corner

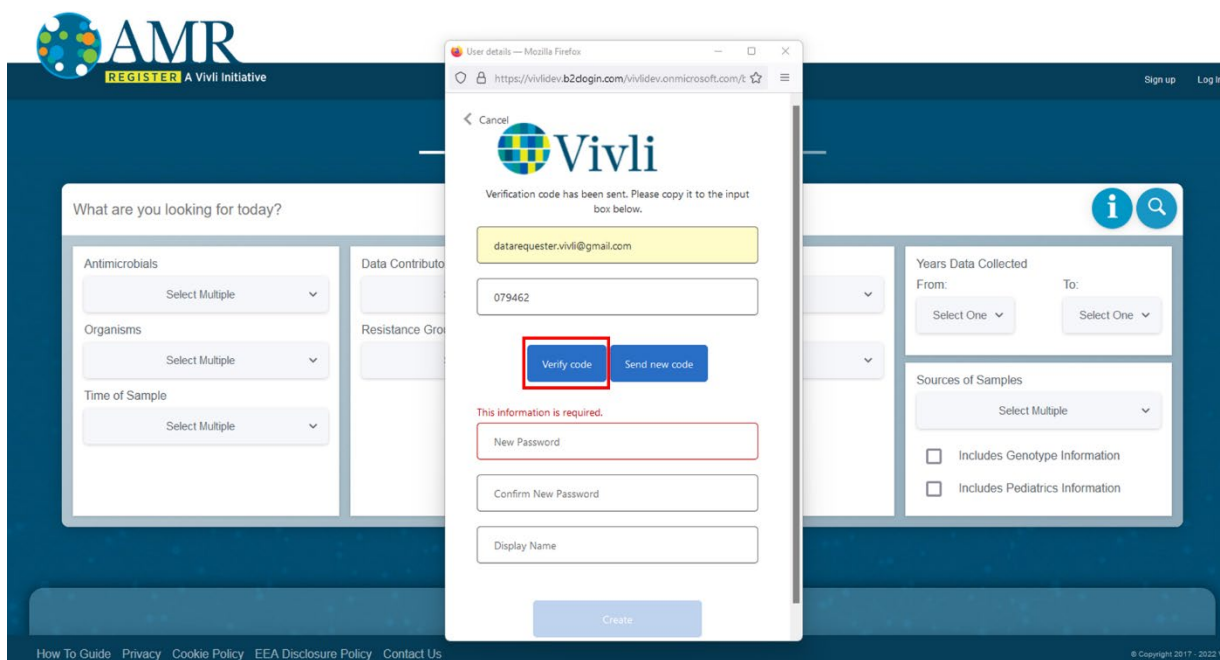

3. A new user details window opens:

4. Enter your email address and click Send Verification Code. A verification code is sent to the email address entered. That invite will come from the address noreply@vivli.org, and the subject will be "Welcome to Vivli". Please copy the 6-digit verification code in the email message.

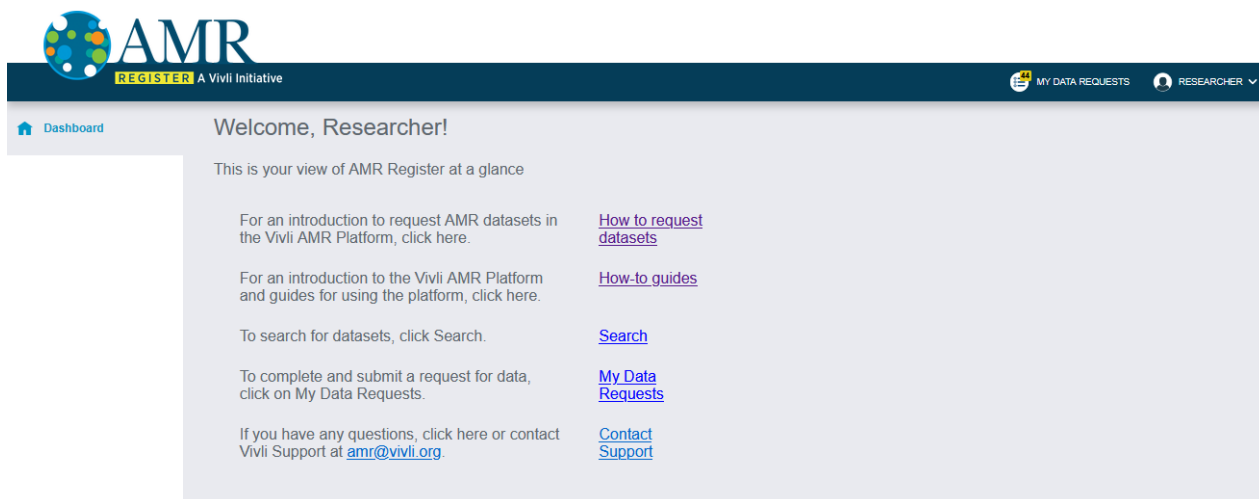

5. Enter the verification code into the appropriate field and click the Verify Code button. Once the code is verified, proceed to the next step. [Note: If you encounter problems with verifying the code, you have the option of requesting another code.]

6. Enter a password to be used for the new account. Passwords should be 8-16 characters and contain 3 out of 4 of the following: upper and lowercase letters, numbers and special characters. Enter the same password into the second password field as a confirmation.
7. Enter a display name to be used in the AMR Register and then click the Create button.

8. Your account is created, and you are now logged into the AMR Register.
